Two of the most important (pre-turbo) decoding algorithms, viz. Viterbi (1967) and BCJR (1974) can be stated in orthodox Bayesian network terms. BCJR, for example, is an anticipation of Pearl's algorithm on a special kind of tree, and Viterbi's algorithm gives a solution to the "most probable explanation" problem on the same structure.

Firefly algorithm FA is a new meta-heuristic optimisation algorithm, which simulates the social behaviour of fireflies based on the flashing and attraction characteristics of fireflies. The standard FA employs a fully attracted model, in which each firefly is attracted by any other brighter firefly in the swarm.
