The light novel contains more detail and backgrounds to scenes that happen in the anime, which provided more emotional and story for each character. Some scenes were removed and others were shifted in terms of the story pacing in the anime, so being able to read these scenes were impactful. The best bit about this volume is that you can see ...

For me this light novel along with all the others is superb. The anime adaptation is horrible but the light novles are worth the read for these reasons. Firstly, the characters and their depth is no joke. The way the author makes use of the characters personalities and habit's/traits in order to prove a point or accomplish an objective is supreme.
