Mockingjay shows the horrors of war. Nobody wins, everyone hurts. Collins portrays this well with Katniss: so strong in the first two books, pushed to the very edge of sanity for the majority of this book, on the verge of suffering a total break down. Every character is heavily flawed, pushed to their very limit.

Book Review 4 of 5 stars to Mockingjay, the third book in the "Hunger Games" young adult trilogy published in 2010 and written by Suzanne Collins. Although I loved this book, it's my least favorite of the three in the series, as it's less about the actual challenge to survive against the other districts, which is what made the books so fun for me.
